Students learn speech patterns; addressing letters, talking on the telephone, making more complicated purchases, interacting with native Japanese-speakers, free time activities, and other selected vocabulary fields in the textbook related to daily routines on an intermediate level.

VI. INSTRUCTIONAL ACTIVITIES: The conversational and grammar exercises will be based on the text. Students are expected to spend at least two hours preparing for every class period.

Assignments are to be completed before class. Any grammar explanations given in class will be very brief and will presuppose knowledge of the material based on outside of class preparation. All exercises are to be practiced thoroughly outside of class. Written homework is to be done before class and in the most complete form possible (i.e., in complete sentences). Late assignments cannot be accepted. No credit will be given for assignments turned in late. You are to observe the basic classroom rules: Please refrain from consuming food, drinks, and gum in order to simulate Japanese classroom cultural conditions.

VII. FIELD and CLINICAL EXPERIENCES: See VIII. Resources.

VIII. RESOURCES: The students’ new host culture provides the laboratory as students interact with native speakers in the target language on a daily basis. They must apply what they learn in class.

X. ATTENDANCE POLICY:
Because the course is designed to cover a large amount of material in a relatively short amount of time, attendance is essential. For one unexcused absence the student’s final grade will be lowered by one letter grade; for two unexcused absences, the student may fail the course. These points may not be redeemed by any sort of extra project.

XI. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY:
1. Cheating in whatever form constitutes academic dishonesty.
2. Your signature on every assignment, quiz, and exam represents a pledge that you have adhered to this policy.
3. I expect students to abide by the highest ethical standards.

XII. TEXT AND REFERENCES:
1. Textbook TBA
2. Course packet
3. Bilingual pocket dictionary

XIII. PREREQUISITES: One year of college Japanese or equivalent.

Mini speech project:
1. Compose three to four complex sentences (minimum three sentences) for your mini speech presentation. Include at least one new structure pattern which you have acquired in the past weeks. Your speech should not last more than 3 minutes.
2. The topic will not be limited.
3. Your speech must be from memory only. Neither text nor notes are allowed.
4. You do not need to turn in your transcript; however, if you turn it in, I will return it to you with my corrections.
5. When you are in the audience group, you need to ask a question of a presenter.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:
KIIS program participants are expected to be punctual to and in attendance at all classes, presentations, meetings and required excursions, and to remain with the program for the full academic period. Unexcused absences from classes and/or mandatory meetings will result in a lowering of the student’s final grade, as will excessive tardiness. Multiple unexcused absences could result in expulsion from the program. Any absence from an academic class session must be excused for medical reasons.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION:
KIIS will make every reasonable effort to provide accommodations for program participants with special needs or disabilities, but we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so. Be aware that many foreign countries do not have comprehensive legislation comparable to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). As a result, businesses and other establishments operating in foreign countries may not be able to provide accommodations.

If you have a disability accommodation need, we recommend you contact your KIIS Campus Representative, https://www.kiis.org/about-kiis/contact-us/campus-representatives/ early in your program selection process so that s/he has time to discuss any specific needs, including which KIIS programs may be best suited. You also are welcome to contact KIIS Assistant Director, Maria Canning, maria.canning@wku.edu, to discuss your disability accommodation needs (e.g. housing, transportation, excursions, class schedule, etc.).

Immediately after acceptance, notify KIIS Assistant Director, Maria Canning, or KIIS Admissions and Enrollment Specialist, Haley McTaggart, haley.mctaggart@wku.edu, if you have a special need or disability that might require any form of accommodation abroad. Failure to notify KIIS may prevent you from participating on your KIIS program.

If you require any accommodations abroad, you must provide KIIS Assistant Director, Maria Canning, or KIIS Admissions and Enrollment Specialist, Haley McTaggart, an accommodation letter from your home campus’ disability accommodation office that lists the accommodations you are eligible to receive. Please do not request accommodations directly from your KIIS Program Director or other KIIS Faculty; the KIIS Office will notify your KIIS Program Director and/or Faculty after we have received your above accommodation letter.

In some cases, you may need to make arrangements for a caregiver to join you on your KIIS program, should your physician, campus disability accommodation office, or KIIS make such a recommendation or require it.
