Role of Title IX Coordinator

The Title IX Coordinator, located in the office of the General Counsel, is responsible for overseeing investigations related to complaints of sexual misconduct/assault under this policy. The Title IX Coordinator will also monitor the response of other campus offices involved in sexual misconduct/assault complaints, and review responses to complaints of retaliation connected to the reporting or filing of a complaint covered by the Title IX Sexual Misconduct/Assault Policy #0.2070. In consultation with the Title IX Coordinator, other offices such as the office of Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action/University ADA Services (EEO), the Office of Student Conduct (OSC), and the WKU Police Department (PD) may handle certain aspects of the University's response to all alleged violations of Policy #0.2070.

Western Kentucky University

Title IX Policy Overview	Sexual Misconduct/Assault Defined	Title IX Coordinator and Deputies	Investigation
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Western Kentucky University (WKU) prohibits sexual misconduct/assault in any educational programs and activities or employment situations. The sexual misconduct/assault policy applies to all WKU operations and programs located on the main campus and all regional campuses. The sexual misconduct/assault policy establishes a process for determining when sexual misconduct/assault has occurred. It also authorizes the University to take actions to proactively stop the conduct, remediate its effects, and provide information related to sexual misconduct/assault. Any person who believes they have been harmed by conduct prohibited by the sexual misconduct/assault policy may file a complaint with the EEO office. 	Examples include, but are not limited to, the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Unwelcome physical contact such as touching; Persistent, unwelcome requests for sexual contact; Requests for romantic or sexual contact from someone who grades, advises, or supervises you; Sexualized behavior accompanied by rewards or threats of harm; Unwelcome sexual remarks about a person’s clothing, body, sex, or sexual orientation; Offensive sexual questions, jokes, and stories; Displays of sexually offensive posters, pictures, words, or messages; Introduction of sexually explicit material into the classroom or workplace without an educational or work-related purpose; Sexual violence or rape; Retaliation for making a complaint of sexual misconduct. 	Title IX Coordinator Ms. Deborah Wilkins, Senior Advisor to the President Office of the General Counsel (270) 745-5396 Title IX Deputies/Investigators Mr. Michael Crowe, Jr., Director Office of Student Conduct (270) 745-5429 Mr. Joshua Hayes, Director Equal Employment Opportunity (270) 745-5121 Title IX Deputies Ms. Andrea Anderson, General Counsel Office of the General Counsel (270) 745-5398 Mr. Randall P. Bogard, Assistant Director Department of Student Activities (270) 745-5809 Ms. Leisha Carr, Advising and Student Services Coordinator Advising and Career Development Center (270) 745-3198 Ms. Minnette Ellis, Assistant Director Department of Housing and Residence Life (270) 745-4359 Mr. Tony Glisson, Director Department of Human Resources (270) 745-5360 Ms. Gail Ledford, Coordinator for Student Services Elizabethtown/Fort Knox Campus (270) 706-8874 Mr. Dominic Ossello, Staff Services’ Commander Police Department (270) 745-2548 Ms. Gina Knutson, Assistant to the Director Department of Athletics (270) 745-5276 Mr. Bill Walter, Campus Operations Director Glasgow Campus (270) 659-6936	Western Kentucky University is required by law and University policy to investigate good faith complaints of sexual misconduct/assault. The responsibility to investigate and ensure a fair, effective, and comprehensive response to complaints has been charged to the Title IX Coordinator, located in the office of the General Counsel. The University’s goal is to determine if the policy against sexual misconduct/assault was violated and if so, how to protect each individual effected, and prevent further sexual misconduct/assault. Common steps in an investigation include, but are not limited to, the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Interview the individual who files a complaint (known as the “Reporting Party”); Determine if there is a duty to investigate; If there is a duty to investigate, the Title IX Coordinator and/or investigators will interview the person(s) alleged to have engaged in sexual misconduct (known as the “Responding Party”). The Title IX Coordinator will also interview people who have first-hand knowledge of what is alleged to have happened, and what the direct effects may have been on the person(s) affected by the alleged conduct; The investigator will issue a final report that summarizes the investigation, discloses facts about the situation, and identifies corrective measures; The Title IX Coordinator and/or investigators will seek assistance from academic or administrative offices, supervisors, faculty, and other student services as needed to ensure implementation of corrective measures.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Any person has a right to file a complaint anonymously, but it may make it more difficult for WKU to fully investigate and address the misconduct. Employees are required to report sexual misconduct/assault. Third parties may file a complaint on behalf of a person whom they believe has been adversely affected by conduct prohibited by this policy. Sexual misconduct/assault includes sexual harassment and sexual violence prohibited by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended), Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and Kentucky Revised Statute 510.140. 	Duty to Report In order to enable WKU to respond effectively and/or proactively stop instances of sexual misconduct/assault involving students at the University, all WKU employees (e.g., part-time, full-time, temporary, intermittent) must report information they have about alleged or possible sexual misconduct/assault involving students only to the Office of Student Conduct, and to the office of Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action/University ADA Services (EEO) for concerns involving, but not limited to, employee-to-student, employee-to-employee, and student-to-employee, within 24 hours of receiving such information. Reports may also be filed with the Title IX Coordinator, located in the office of the General Counsel, or with any of the Title IX Deputies.
