

KIIS Egypt Tentative Itinerary for Summer 2022

Most days will include most of the following: instruction at our accommodations, visits to historical sites, small-group interactive/observational assignments, meetings with local experts, lots of walking, delicious meals, debriefing, and time for reading, reflection, and journaling.

| Sunday   | Monday  | Tuesday  | Wednesday   | Thursday   | Friday  | Saturday   |
|--|---|--|---|--|---|--|
|  |   |  |   |  | May 20Depart USA                          | May 21Arrive in Cairo                      |
| May 22Attend Coptic Mass                               | May 23Giza: Pyramids!                   | May 24Cairo: Egyptian Antiquities Museum (King Tut!) | May 25Coptic Cairo: Ancient Churches and Synagogue!         | May 26Islamic Cairo: Amazing architecture!   | May 27Modern Cairo: Local Hospitality!    | May 28Cairo: Historic Grand Bazaar!        |
| May 29Cairo: Arab League / Ministry of Foreign Affairs | May 30Cairo: Whirling Dervish (Tanoura) | May 31Travel from Cairo to Red Sea Coast             | June 1Red Sea Coast -El Gouna – Desert / Bedouin Encounter! | June 2Red Sea Coast -El Gouna – Snorkel Day! | June 3AM: Final ExamPM: Free time | June 4Travel from Red Sea Coast - to Cairo |
| June 5Fly back to the USA                              |   |  |   |  |   |  |